As part of both the Architecture and Construction Career Cluster and the Manufacturing Career Cluster, the Computer-Aided Drafting Career Pathway provides students with an understanding of the features associated with the operation of a computer-aided drafting and design system.

Students will draw precise plans on the computer for machine parts and construction blueprints for homes.

Students learn technical design and architectural design on the latest AutoCAD and SolidWorks software.

Instruction focuses on the techniques used to translate engineers’ ideas and calculations into complete working plans.
