About the Instructor:

Gretchen Taylor has a BS degree in Chemical Engineering, and currently teaches in the Pre-Engineering Academy at RRTC, in addition to tutoring for the ACT and SAT. As a student, she was a SAT National Merit Scholar, and achieved a 33 on the ACT in high school. To keep up with current ACT content and help prepare students today, she has taken the ACT several times in 2015-2017, earning composite scores of 34, 35, and 36. She knows how to practice to improve your ACT test score. Gretchen is passionate about helping students reach their full potential, and is enthusiastic and encouraging! Come hear her proven test-taking tips and tricks, and gain the confidence to improve your own ACT test score!
